PERSONAL AND SOCIETY.

[All society and personal notes for the Sunday issue of the Journal, to secure publication, must be in the hands of the city editor by Saturday noon.]

Any day and almost any hour from noon till midnight during the past week was considered as the popular time for entertaining. Monday evening the ladies were at the Gentlemen's Club, and the Whist Club played at the home of Misses Minnie and Florence Coffin. Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Egan and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Deschler gave one of the largest and finest parties of the season. Mrs. C. C. Foster had a 4-o'clock tea in honor of Mrs. R. Brown's chrysanthemum reception, from 2 till 6 o'clock, occurred. Miss Sue Stuart, the same afternoon, gave a tea from 3 to 5 o'clock in honor of Miss Belle Lloyd, of Louisville. The first evening concert of the Matines Musicale for this season will be given by members of the first division, Wednesday evening, at Plymouth Church. Each member is entitled to ten tickets of invitation. and those who have not received them can get them of the president or secretary.

The Matine Musicale of Spokane, Wash. is an organization similar to that of the same name in this city, and was founded there by Mrs. Charles S. Voorhees, formerly Miss Fannie Vajen, of this city, who was a prominent member of the local organization before removing to the West. Mrs. Voorhees is president of the Spokane society, which has given a Mendelssohn concert with an exceptional programme. It has also had the Mendelssohn Quintet Club of Boston there for a concert. The first programme and concert show that in the first year of its existence the Spokane Musicale has made more rapid advance in art than the parent society did here.

Fairs and Entertainments.

The annual fair of the Flower Mission will be held next week, opening at Tomlin-son Hall Tuesday evening, Nov. 17. The fair will be called "The Fair of the Republic," representing great industries and inventions. Zumpfe's orchestra will give a concert each evening. Friday evening Rev. O. C. McCulloch will talk about Robert Burns. He will give illustrations with the stereopticon. Saturday afternoon an old-fashioned children's party will be given.

The members of the First Baptiet Church for the fair and art exhibit, will open their lecture-room to the public this week. Rev. W. F. Taylor has been instrumental in having the local artists, professional and amateur, take an interest in the affair, and, as there is very little opportunity for such a display at the time of the spring exhibit of the Art Association, all of them will contribute to make a success of the exhibit at the church. Visitors will be admitted free to all departments of fair except the exhibit. The opening will be Tuesday morning, at 10 o'clock, and a dinner will be served each day by the ladies. The ladies of the second section of the Free Kindergarten and Children's Aid Society will give a 3-o'clock tea Wednesday North Illinois street with a charade party.
